- Review, consider and discuss large volume of information that is “out there” on disaffiliation
- Discern information to be shared with the congregation
- Assemble/prepare collection of information and tools for use by congregation in discernment process
- Disseminate information to congregation
- Facilitate events aimed at informing the church on the issues surrounding disaffiliation
- Teach congregation how to receive information

What Will Guide Us...

Guiding Principles

Be Heard. Be Loved. Be Informed. Be Blessed.

Scripture to Guide Us

Ephesians 4:1-6 (NIV) - Unity and Maturity in the Body of Christ

1 As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. 2 Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. 3 Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace. 4 There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to one hope when you were called; 5 one Lord, one faith, one baptism; 6 one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

Ground Rules

Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, so that you will be able to discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. Romans 12:2

1. Begin each session with a time of prayer, seeking openness to and guidance from the Holy Spirit.
2. All involved in the decision-making process are invited to listen respectfully to all perspectives presented.
3. The decision before our church will be clearly described and defined, taking great care that everyone understands the facts as they are currently known and the decisions to be made by church council and by the membership of the church.
4. Thoughtfully and lovingly share with your McEachern Family what you have seen, heard and felt in your personal reflection time.
5. Humility is crucial to our discernment process and should be exhibited by all involved at all times.
6. Spend time in quiet reflection and prayer, listening for God's intimations about the future and hints of God's direction.
7. Great care should be taken to ensure that this time of dialogue and discernment does not negatively impact the ministries and mission of McEachern, which should remain the primary focus of our church body throughout.

Q&A Process

- FAQ page on church website will be continually updated based upon new and updated information
- Questions can be submitted online via the church website portal. Please do not expect a response from every single question. Questions will be addressed through the posted FAQ or at a live meeting
- Please opt-in to receive updates and access to this portal on the church website
- Recordings of all meetings will be posted on the church website
- Cards will be available to write down questions and submit at each live meeting but they will be reviewed for duplicity and time restraint purposes

Phase 3: Call to Action

10/23/22

- Following education and the presentation of survey results by the Task Force, Church Council will meet to determine next steps in our Path Forward. Specifically, the Church Council will be deciding whether or not McEachern UMC will submit a formal request to the District Superintendent that she conduct a church conference wherein the membership of the church shall be given an opportunity to vote on disaffiliation from the UMC.

1/1/23 - 2/28/23

- Per the guidelines set forth by the North Georgia Conference, such a request shall be made by the Church Council, if at all, between January 1, 2023 and February 28, 2023.

3/1/23

- The District Superintendent shall begin the process of scheduling church conferences for those churches requesting a conference on disaffiliation, set to ensure completion and efficiency (not based on when a request is made). If requested, McEachern's Church Conference on disaffiliation will occur some time after this date. The decision to disaffiliate from The United Methodist Church must be approved by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the professing members of the local church present at the church conference.
